always a Mustang

We had four seniors playing this year: Shalene, Jaclyn, Janelle, and Sarita. Shalene and Jaclyn were our scoring force . Sarita and Janelle were our outstanding defensive players. Shalyn, as our fifth player for our starting line up, did well in keeping the level of play high. Reegan, the mostimproved player for this season along with Richelle and Lauren, provided the team with well-rounded play off the bench.

Our rockies, Tanya, Jackie, Tiena, and McKenna, improved with every minute of play. Their most memorable game was the 4 point loss to Unity- the second place team in the province. As for the most embarrassing moment, it was when the ref asked if we were okay after one of our cheers. Job well done. Coaches Pat, Liz, and Elizabeth considered you to be a great group to coach.

"Introducing Janelle Ten cate Brouwer!"

"Good, better, best. Never let it rest. Until your good is better and your better is best."
