

Bringing down

Two of the percussion students, Indra Dollis and Chris Roberts rock out to impress the invisible crowd of fans.

The amazing Mr. Tarr has yet again done an outstanding job of whipping all the students who participate in band into shape.

The grade 8's have worked long and hard and will keep up the outstanding music program that H.S.S. offers.

By much practice and large amount of perseverance, the grade 8's will hopefully continue to play music throughout their years in high school. As well, the Concert Band will continue their high expectations that the whole school should be proud of. When we look back on the year and think about the band's performances we all remember their huge dedication and refusal to quit, even when the going gets tough. It has been, overall, a very successful year for Band.

The Concert Band's saxophone section has worked extremely well from the start and it shows, This section played pitch perfectly and in tempo.

Mr. Tarr brings the Jazz band to a fantastic finish while playing the song Blues for a New Day.

Francis Melling has worked long hours to compose, practice and perform a song of his own over the course of the year. Francis finally showed off his finished piece of work at the Winter Band Concert that took place in December. During the concert he performed with great amounts of concentration and effort. Way to go Francis!

The senior band has been working since the beginning of the year on Waltz No.2 for their Band Concert in December. They have been working hard and will continue to practice and perform well. Great job senior band!

The Jazz Band has been rehearsing for their concert in December, where they will perform the song St.Thomas by Micheal Sweeney.
